MATTAPOISETT WOMAN RECEIVES CARD FROM PRESIDENT

Miss Thelma Little of Brandt Island Road, Mattapoisett received the following message among her many birthday greetings: "Sharing as we do a birthday anniversary on October fourteenth, your kind message of greeting is particularly gratifying. With my thanks to you I send my cordial reciprocal good wishes.

Dwight D. Eisenhower."

GRANGE HAS INSTALLATION

Gilbert Collins of Acushnet and his installing suite installed the new officers of the Rochester Grange Wednesday night in a very impressive ceremony. Other members of the suite were David Radcliffe of Acushnet, marshall; Ruth Radcliffe, soloist; Diane Spirlet, pianist; Ann Hammond of Wamsutta, chaplain; Ann Ashley of Middleboro, regalia bearer; and Ruth Radcliffe, emblem bearer. Ladies of the suite wore attractive evening gowns.

Escorted to the master's station and speaking briefly were Herbert Hobart, master of Brockton Grange; Frank Jefferson, master of South Middleboro Grange; Joseph Bradford of South Middleboro, state deputy; Jethro Ashley, Jr., master of Sippican Pomona Grange and Rev. Francis Green, pastor of SS Martha and Mary Church.

Edith Norman was escorted to the altar and was presented the past masters' jewel by the present master, Paul Ouellette. The master also presented gifts to members of the installing suite.

Mrs. Glenn Norman and Mr. and Mrs. Norman Ouellette were given wedding gifts from the Grange.

The Lecturer's march prizes were won by Mrs. Sarah Devine of Acushnet and Beverly Morse of Brockton Grange.

Members were invited to the installation of officers at Fairhaven Grange on October 13. Serving refreshments were Mrs. Harold Vaughan,

FIELD DAY - 1960 - AT MATTAPOISETT

The Sippican Junior High School of Marion defeated Mattapoisett Center School 107 to 100 in their annual Field Day held in Mattapoisett.

This year's teams were the most evenly matched in the last four years. Marion has the honor of keeping the trophy, since this will be the last year in which the two will compete, as they will be on the same side against other schools next year at the new regional school.

Going into the last event (the tug of war between the boys), the score was 97 to 95 with Marion leading. Marion won two out of three tug of wars giving them 10 points to Mattapoisett's 5 - making the final score 107 to 100.

GRANDFATHER AND GRANDDAUGHTER BAPTIZED

Lisa Lee Tripp and Otis J. Tripp, granddaughter and grandfather, were christened at ceremonies held at SS Martha and Mary Church, Lakeville with the Rev. Francis J. Greene officiating.

Lisa Lee is the five week old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fredrick O. Tripp of Robinson Road, Rochester. The Rev. Greene noted it is rarely that a pastor has the opportunity to christen both a granddaughter and grandfather at the same time.

Lisa Lee wore the christening dress made by her paternal great-grandmother, Mrs. Josephine Harpin, for her daughter, Mrs. Otis (Claire) Tripp 50 years ago. The dress has been used by both sides of the Tripp family constantly when the occasion arose. The outfit features a silk cape almost identical to the one of the christening outfit used by Prince Charles of England.

This is the first time a grandchild of Mr. and Mrs. Tripp has used the outfit and also a great-grandchild of Mrs. Harpin.

After the ceremonies a dinner, family style, was served at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Otis Tripp of Acushnet.

Serving as godparents for Lisa Lee were Mrs. Florinda Reed of Rochester and Benjamin Cushing of Marion. Godparents for Otis J. Tripp were Mr. and Mrs. John Clark of Wakefield. Mrs. Reed presented her godchild a gold cross on a chain and Mr. Cushing gave Lisa Lee a gift of money.

Present were Miss Elaine Tilton, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Harpin and three children, all of Rochester, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Goyette, Mrs. Lena Green and Mrs. Jennie DeMello, all

ROCHESTER BOWLING LEAGUE AT BOWL-MOR ALLEYS

New records were set in the Rochester Bowling League with Gene Benoit hitting 170, 370 to lead Mahoney to a 3 to 0 sweep over Hartley Saw Mill (Ralph Gurney 366). The Firemen, sparked by Chief Jay Hiller's 360, hit 638 and 1732 to down Lloyd's Market 2 and 1. Eddie Lawrence belted 381 for Lloyds. Stub Hartley pinned 368 for 1 point for Herbs TV, in a losing match with Gibbs Farm Dairy (D. Richards 334). Maury Dion's 381 fixed Hartley's Garage up with 2 points from Rounseville Saw Mill (Bob Jefferson 341).

Any Rochester resident interested in bowling Tuesday nights at 9 P.M. is requested to contact Tuck Hartley, RO 3-8833.

WOMAN'S CLUB RUUMAGE AND FOOD SALE

LITERATURE-DRAMA GROUP MEET

Members of the Literature-Drama Group of the Mattapoisett Woman's Club met last Tuesday afternoon at the home of the chairman, Mrs. Charles W. Smith, Fairhaven Road. Plans were discussed for the programs for the year and also for the club program in March of which the group will be in charge.

Mrs. Harold Banks reviewed the book, "Trustee from the Toolroom", by Nevile Shute and also read an editorial, "Why Do So Many Americans Apologize for their Country", by Dr. Mario Pei. Mrs. Smith read a humorous fictitious letter from a magazine and a poem, "A Child's Prayer", by Frances Thompson. Mrs. Ross Hopkins reviewed "The World's His Stage" from the Reader's Digest and closed the program by reading Psalm 96.

The next meeting will be held November 8 at 10 A.M. at the home of Mrs. Banks, Oak-

PIANO RECITAL HELD

An audience of parents and friends heard Miss Suzanne C. Perreault present her students in a piano recital held at the Rochester Memorial School auditorium.

Moss velvet green drapes served as a background for harvest produce and Fall foliage as the decoration on the stage.

First pianist on the program was Lorna Waddington playing "Swans on the Lake" by Thompson who rendered her selection in a pleasing manner. Miss Waddington's second selection was "Little Spring Song", played in a lilting manner.

Miss Cynthia Doane chose as her selection "Ecossaise" by Beethoven which she presented in a sprightly manner. Master James Hartley, the only boy playing in the recital, presented "At the Ball Game" by Reed which was played in a militant manner denoting a march.

Miss Marie Howland and Miss Sheila Walker presented a piano duet playing "Congratulation Minuet" by Beethoven in complete unison.

The merry tune of Habanera from Carmen by Bizet was presented by Miss Sandra Gayoski. The gentle tune of "Fantasie Impromptu" by Chopin, played by Miss Dorothy Reed, delighted the audience. Next on the program was another piano duet by Miss Doane and Miss Gayoski playing "Mama's Birthday Waltz" by Streabbog which brought visions of mother having a wonderful time waltzing.

Master Hartley presented in a creditable manner the "Starlight Waltz" by Brainard. "Nobody Knows De Trouble I've Seen", arranged by Thompson, was the selection chosen by Miss Marilyn Gilmore, which is a southern air with its sad tones fading in the distance. Miss Howland chose for her second selection, "Evening Shadows", by Chopin, playing the song with effect and moderate tempo.

A well poised pianist, Miss Gilmore offered "Polonaise in A Flat" by Chopin giving pleasurable listening to the audience. Another delightful song, "Spinning Song", by Ellmenreich was presented by Miss Heidi Hartley. Playing with depth and feeling, Miss Norma Mello presented "Minuet A L'Antique" by Paderewski.

Completely at ease and presenting "Barcarolle from Tales of Hoffman with proper overtones was Miss Walker. An engaging number concluded the piano recital with Miss Gayoski and Miss Waddington singing "Do Re Mi" from The Sound of Music by Rogers and Hammerstein and Miss Mello serving as piano accompanist. Miss Gayoski sang the first voice and Miss Waddington carried the second voice with both giving excellent performances along with their accompanist.

Miss Perrault, who is a junior at Lowell State Teachers College, majoring in music curricula, delighted the audience with an excellent performance of "Fair Elise" by Beethoven.

All students received ovations from the delighted audience. Each student at the conclusion of her playing a number gave a curtsey and Master Hartley a bow which pleased the parents and guests present.

CYO ELECTS OFFICERS

The C. Y. O. held their first meeting recently and elected the following officers: Father Jeremiah Casey, SS.CC., moderator; John Duff, president; Audrey Pacheco, vice-president; Jean Silveria, secretary; Carole Bessette, treasurer; Mary Morse, editor; Joseph Costa, sergeant at arms; Richard Regan, spiritual chairman; Irene Sullivan, cultural chairman; Gale Liberty, social chairman and Henry Denault, physical chairman.

The permanent aims and purposes of the C.Y.O. are to emphasize youth's potential, by spotlighting their capacity and willingness to assume responsibility, to encourage youth by making them aware of their opportunity for good, to display the talents, abilities and resources of youth and to reveal modern Catholic youth's depth of spirituality and to foster frequent reception of the Sacraments among Catholic youth i.e. Confession and Communion.

Father Casey spoke on the C.Y.O. and encouraged all to bring a new member for the C.Y.O. at the next meeting on October 23rd at the Youth Center at 7:30. Meetings will be the first and third Sundays of the month.

A new orthophonic high fidelity has been donated to the C.Y.O. and a table tennis set.

A newsletter will be published monthly with Mary Morse, editor. Associate editors are Michael Gulley, Mary Jane Lariviere, Richard Green, Anna DeCosta, Shirley Liberty and Mary Lee DeCoffe.

A dance was held last Friday for the youth of the parish. Coming events are a square dance, roller skating, movies, party, debate, skits, minstrel show, lectures, amateur show and parents' night.

MINSTREL SHOW IN ROCHESTER

All roads in Rochester will be leading to the Rochester Grange Hall on Friday and Saturday, October 21 and 22, where residents will view the Grange-Brotherhood Minstrel Show. Show time is 8 P.M. both nights.

Interlocutor and general chairman of the show is Calvin R. Daggett. Special acts under the supervision of Mrs. William Watling and Mrs. Thomas Gayoski will feature instrumental numbers, dance routines, solos and a variety of surprise acts.

There will be door prizes both nights and refreshments will be sold. At the conclusion of the minstrel show on Saturday, the Woodchoppers will provide music for dancing.

Mrs. Fred E. Tibbetts of Marion will serve as piano accompanist for acts and numbers needing her service. No minstrel show is complete without its end men and doing the honors this year will be Elmer H. Lawrence, Maurice M. Gifford, William Alves, Fredrick O. Tripp and David Lizotte. In charge of the end men is C. Stephen Lawrence.

Among some acts of the minstrel show will be numbers by the Tambourine Girls who were taught their routines by Miss Cynthia Walker and Miss Ann Reed. Susan Doane, Heidi Hartley, Betty Tuttle, Nancy Tuttle, Priscilla Smith and Karen Chase are the group making up the Tambourine Girls.

The core of any minstrel show is its chorus and on the stage will be seen Corrine Thompson, Dorothy Doane, Lois Phillips, Pearl Peters, Lucille Rogers, Edith Lizotte, Florence Taylor, Geraldine Lawrence, Patricia Taylor, Merilou Lawrence, Palmeda Daggett, Margaret Doane and Dorothy Lawrence. Mr. Gifford and Mr. Daggett are in charge of arrangements for the chorus and tambourine girls.

A most important item in a minstrel show is its many props which are under the capable handling of Hoyle Demoranville. Arthur Lionberger is in charge of finances and music. Persons wishing to attend the minstrel show are urged to obtain tickets from members of either organization.

FELLOWSHIP TO HAVE WORK DAYS

Pilgrim Fellowship of the First Congregational Church of Rochester will observe Work Days for Christ October 28 and 29. Services of members of the fellowship will be available for those who wish their assistance by the hour or day. Proceeds earned by members will go to State Pilgrim Fellowship for use in helping needy persons home and abroad. Anyone
